Plant Therapy Releases the Autumn Treasures Fall Blends Set, Its Line of Popular Fall Essential Oil Blends Packaged in an Attractive Three Set

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO SEPTEMBER 6, 2018

Plant Therapy, a leader in the aromatherapy industry, announced the release of three new essential oil blends to kick off the fall season. The oils in this year's line of limited-release blends are sure to delight the senses with the fragrance of fall. Each unique blend is reminiscent of what we love best about fall.

The new collection was formulated by Plant Therapy's staff of Certified Aromatherapists and includes Harvest Moon, Spiced Orange and Pumpkin Pie blends. Each blend comes in a 10-mL bottle, and are available individually or in a three set. The Autumn Treasures Fall Blends Set contains a 10 mL bottle of each fall blend, perfectly packaged in an attractive wooden box.

Harvest Moon blends Bergamot, Cedarwood Virginian, Cardamom, Fir Needle and Juniper Berry to bring that crisp, clean smell of fall indoors and freshen up any room with its uplifting aroma. These essential oils blended together can help to ease congestion during times of seasonal illness and soothe sore muscles due to overexertion.

Spiced Orange is a warm, citrus and spice blend, which combines Orange Sweet, Clove Bud, Cinnamon Cassia and Cinnamon Bark essential oils. This special fall blend conjures the scent of warm spices simmering on the stovetop, the smell of your favorite seasonal tea and cider, and the feeling of family-filled nights by the fire.

Pumpkin Pie is a delightful blend of Copaiba Oleoresin, Peru Balsam, Cardamom, Cinnamon Cassia, Clove Bud, Ginger Root CO2 and Nutmeg essential oils. This wonderful blend will evoke memories of gatherings around the dinner table for a Thanksgiving feast. Spicy and warm with a hint of sweet, the only thing missing from this yummy blend is the whipped cream!

“Our seasonal blends have been enormously popular in past years,” said David Weymouth, Vice President of Product Development at Plant Therapy. “We listened to feedback from our customers on what blends they wanted, and our Aromatherapy team did an amazing job bringing these scents together.”

Each of the three essential oil blends in the Autumn Treasures Fall Blends set contain 100% pure, high-quality essential oils that embody the unmistakable aromas of the season.
