Plant Therapy Receives Honorable Mention from Best Places to Work in Idaho

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO NOVEMBER 6, 2018

Plant Therapy received an Honorable Mention from Best Places to Work in Idaho for the 2018 medium employer's category this year. This was Plant Therapy's first year participating in the survey and based on employees' responses, the company received the Honorable Mention. The Best Places to Work in Idaho Program was created to identify, promote, and support Idaho's best employers. Honorees are identified based on the results of a confidential employee survey.

Top areas of satisfaction for Plant Therapy employees that were revealed in the survey results included the company's reputation, community involvement, and how employee's work relates to the mission and goals of the organization. Plant Therapy's mission is to be the most customer-centric essential oil company and the satisfaction level of employees helps to maintain the excellence in the customer experience.

"Because Plant Therapy is a people first organization, we are continually looking for ways to increase the quality of life for our employees," says Chris Jones, President of Plant Therapy. "The honest and anonymous feedback we receive by participating in The Best Places to Work in Idaho Program allows us to more easily become aware of areas in which we can improve and implement change."
